NEW SERIES.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.

Senator Douglas in a letter dated Cleveland, Jan. 20, to the editor of the Register says that here, it has had an operation performed on his throat, which has caused him much delay in attending to his duties.

An authentic source warrants the assertion that so far from a special message relative to our foreign relations being sent to Congress, as was anticipated, much has the subject of Cabinet construction been the subject of discussion, and the recall of Mr. Crampson, the British minister, engaged in reviewing for the Cabinet.

It is also said that the President has been no purpose in or out of the Cabinet to withdraw Mr. Buchanan from England, unless to take the place of Mr. Venable, who has been appointed to the United States are still open dispatches having been sent by the last steamer and another is expected to sail in a few days.

A message to Congress to charge the subject of one rebellion awaits the President.

The resolution offered in the House

ly declaring our relations with G. B. to be of the most serious character and indicating that we supposed, submitted with the correct knowledge of the executive but was Mr. Boyce's independent proposition.

Mr. Boyce tries to get up a war panic and politics.

Washington, Jan. 22.

The following is Mr. Boyce's, of North Carolina, resolution:

Whereas, Our relations with Great Britain are of the most threatening character, indicating that we are on the eve of the most startling events, and whereas it is the most imperative duty of this House at this juncture of momentous peril, to indicate its attitude in regard to the war, by organizing if possible, upon such a basis as to give peace to our distracted country, and enable us to indicate our attitude in regard to the war, my. Therefore, resolved, that the conservative

Mr. Stevens of Georgia, hoped that the gentleman would be permitted to state facts upon which he made the announcement, that we are on the eve of war. It was so, he knew nothing about it. Objections were made to any explanation.

Mr. Morgan, of New York, the resolution set aside.

Mr. McMillen, of Virginia, made an ineffectual effort to rescind the resolution, prohibiting debate.

Spain and the Alliance—Our Relations with England—Kansas Matter.

Mr. New York.

A correspondent of the N. Y. Times telegraphs from Washington—It has been ascertained from authentic sources, that the long talked of alliance

The Tristram's Washington correspondent telegraphic office advises by America do not in any way change our friendly relations with England. Mr. Tristram says we were not to be deceived. The questions are determined by the Ministry, and England is preparing the largest fleet ever sent for operations against Russia in the Spring.

Louis Napoleon is still anxious to extricate himself from the position he has assumed all the desired prestige of the occasion.

Gen. Cass is preparing a speech on the question of Slavery in the Territories, for Thursday, probably.

C. R. Singleton, a member of the late Congress from Mississippi, has been confirmed as its sole representative.

The President communicated to the Senate, in executive session to-day, Lord John Russell's letter of January 19th, 1863, to Mr. Crampton, in which he had submitted to Mr. Everett, Secretary of State, it declares that the British government intended strictly to carry out the Clayton-Bulwer Treaty, to assume no sovereignty, direct or indirect, in Central America, and that it had also removed the injunctions of secrecy, and the letter will be published.

The Government has received no official information respecting the bloody outrages in Kansas announced by telegraph.

Sensators to-day informally conferred as to the policy of advising the President to send the military to the aid of the Unionists in the border territory against Missouri invasions. Northern Sensators predict that civil war is inevitable in a short time.

Destructive Fire—The Auburn Home in Maine. AUBURN, Jan. 18.—Our city was visited this morning by one of the most destructive fires that has occurred within its borders since the great conflagration of 1848. The alarm was given between 2 and 3 o'clock, and was found to proceed from the Auburn Home.

The flames spread with great rapidity, and before the engines could be brought to bear on the flames, the building was passing.

The building was owned by Mrs. Maria W. T. Worden, Mrs. Wm. P. Brown and Wm. Allen. Its cost was $45,000. Mr. Allen was insured for $4,500. None of the others were insured. It is supposed to be the work of an incendiary. The furniture was mostly saved.

Crippled with Rheumatism, Arm and Leg paralyzed—No hopes of his recovery—Timely use of H. R. K. and the result.

LETTER FROM IRVING HENRIKSON.

Chicago, March 12, 1904.

My dear Father, I am a ready soldier but have cured David of his Rheumatism, when there was no hope of his ever recovering.

He was laid up with the arm and leg all paralyzed. He had no use of them at all. But by the use of your medicine, in a few days he was able to get up and walk.

He has been cured of a severe case of Sall Rheumatism, the same as the one which afflicted you, and is now able to walk, after having laid the leg by the use of the medicine.

He has been perfectly cured by the use of the medicine, and is now able to walk, after having laid the leg by the use of the medicine.

collected. In ordinary diarrhoeas, insipient cholera, and in the early stages of infectious diseases, the use of this medicine is of the greatest service. It is a powerful antiseptic, and renders the contents of the stomach and bowels innocuous, and thus prevents the development of epidemic cholera and summer complaints of children. It is perfectly safe, and no family, individual or traveler should be without it.

PIANOS AND MELODEONS ONLY.

IN ALL LARGE CITIES the PIANO and MELODEON trade is so important by itself, requiring the entire attention of the dealer, that it is not possible to do justice to both branches of the business. Believing that such an establishment can be sustained in the Musical City, the melodeon will devote his time to the trade.

Pianos and Melodeons exclusively.
